A solid blue background with white, fluffy clouds scattered across it. The clouds are drawn in a simple, sketchy style.

IT'S FINE,
